Abstract

PUBLIC SERVICES - Madras Civil Services (Classification, Control, and Appeal) Rules - Power of the appellate authority to consider charges dropped by the punishing authority - Instructions - Issued.

Revenue Department

G.O.Ms.No.1127 Dated 20th April 1953.

Read the following:--

From the Board of Revenue Ref. C.D.10062/52-1, dated 3-3-53.

ORDER:

The Board of Revenue is informed that with reference to Rule 12(b), read with Rule 12(a)(1) and (2) of the Madras Civil Services (Classification, Control, and Appeal) Rules, it is open to the appellate authority to take into consideration even those charges which have been dropped by the original authority. The only thing necessary is that the appellate authority should follow the prescribed procedure and give an opportunity to the officer affected to defend himself against the question why a finding of guilty should not be recorded, and, if a finding of guilty is recorded, why a particular punishment should not be imposed.
